Assigned Department Objectives
Teaching Method
Outline	This course will have lectures and exercises on fundamental approaches such as written presentations, graphical presentations, oral presentations, etc. in order to enhance students' ability to express technical matters. Students will be given a variety of assignments, and asked to evaluate each other based on the viewpoints of (1) subject clarity, (2) content clarity, (3) appeal, etc. In addition, the teaching staff will offer their impressions and critiques to raise the levels of the content. Furthermore, students will understand the importance of sharing roles and other matters by preparing for presentations through team work. (See class content for the teacher and scheduling information.)
Style	After Nakai and Ishimatsu have given their lectures on the fundamental topics, etc., students will give presentations on their themes. Lessons will then be taught by Nakai and Ishimatsu together.
Notice	This course's content will amount to 90 hours of study in total. These hours include the learning time guaranteed in classes and the standard self-study time required for pre-study / review, and completing assignment reports. Emphasis will be on presenting and discussing the summary and slides students have prepared by themselves within the determined time. Students are expected to be able to evaluate other students' presentations. Students who miss 1/5 or more of classes will not be eligible for a passing grade.
