Assigned Department Objectives
Teaching Method
Outline		We will deepen our knowledge and interest in the 20 writers and poets who represent modern Japanese literature, and at the same time improve their expressiveness.
Style		Two novelists will be picked up in each class. The student in charge gives a presentation, and then the teacher gives a lecture. At the end of the lesson, a confirmation test will be given.
Notice		About presentations, essays, and submissions ◆ Presentation: A presentation introducing the artist will be held. Investigate, organize and analyze the artist in charge and his work, and give a presentation for about 15 minutes using PowerPoint. There will also be a question and answer session. ◆ Short essay: Read the work of the writer taken up in the class, analyze the work based on the prior theory, and summarize your thoughts in a short essay of 1000 characters or more. The essay will be submitted at the end of the previous term. ◆ Submissions: Fill out and submit a "literary record sheet" for each presentation. Other submissions may be imposed depending on the circumstances. * Please note that the syllabus may be modified depending on the situation.
