到達目標
This course focuses upon improving the student’s ability to engage in conversation and communicate in English, and help the student feel more confident about using the English they already know. The course uses role-plays and various scenarios that simulate a natural setting to use the language studied in the textbooks. The textbook itself also covers reading, writing and listening practice, much of which will be set as homework to allow the focus to remain upon communication exercises in class.
ルーブリック
		Ideal Level of Achievement (Very Good)	Standard Level of Achievement (Good)	Unacceptable Level of Achievement (Fail)
Communicative Ability / Attitude		Is able to use natural English in a variety of situations. Able to instigate and to maintain a conversation on a range of topics both familiar and unfamiliar.	Sometimes uses some un-natural phrases or expressions in conversation. Finds it a little difficult to instigate a conversation in English. Sometimes struggles to hold a conversation about unfamiliar topics.	Makes little effort to use natural English. Cannot instigate or maintain a conversation.
Use of English in Class		Strives to use English in the class as much as proficiency allows. Uses reference materials when vocabulary is insufficient. Tries to apply new concepts and use new vocabulary while speaking.	At all times tries to use English when in the class, but relies on others to produce the language. Gives short answers.Occasionally uses Japanese in class without first trying to express themselves in English.	Seldom makes any effort to use English in the class. Doesn’t speak during group or pair activities.
Class Participation		Actively participates in all activities and discussions with a positive attitude. Makes appropriate contributions. Listens attentively to others.	Shows interest in activities and participates, but sometimes passively rather than actively.Spends a little too long listening to others instead of contributing.	Seldom contributes or listens to others. Presence in class has little or no bearing upon communicative activities.

教育方法等
概要	This course aims to improve the ability for students to engage in natural English Conversation. The course focuses upon a range of common situations and provides the language necessary to navigate such situations, whilst using role-playing, activities and discussions to build students confidence and allow ample practice. Interactions will be varied (pair work, group work, class discussions and individual presentations) and will be supported by the study of new vocabulary and grammar structures in the textbook. Some reading and writing exercises will also be used in class to introduce or reinforce the concepts or specific situations.
授業の進め方・方法	Students are assessed through classroom activities (discussions, pair and group activities) [50%] and tests (First semester: mid-term and final, Second semester: mid-term and final) [50%]
