教育方法等
概要	This course aims to develop students' reading proficiency in English. The main textbook for this course is organized around reading passages about various topics as well as key grammatical features that are essential for reading comprehension. Therefore, the instructional emphasis is placed on reading skills such as reading for the main idea and reading for details. Throughout the course, students are encouraged to engage with communication in English.
授業の進め方・方法	The class will be conducted in English. When introducing new materials or understanding the main idea, English will be a main vehicle for communication. 80% of the assessment is based on the regular paper-based exams and 20% is based on vocabulary tests conducted every week.
注意点	Students are encouraged to study for the vocabulary test every week. Students should score more than 60 on average in order to pass the course. If they fail the course, students are eligible to retake the exam.
