Teaching Method
Outline	General or Specialized : General Field of learning : Japanese language Foundational academic disciplines : Humanities/Literature, linguistics Relationship with Educational Objectives : This class is equivalent to "(5) Attain a global perspective and understanding of social development." "(7) Develop communication and presentation abilities." Relationship with JABEE programs : The main goals of learning / education in this class are "(F), also "(B)" is involved. Course outline : This is a Japanese language class for first-year international students. Students learn the basic grammatical items necessary to develop Japanese communication skills that are useful for living in Japan. One of the goals is to be able to express one's thoughts and feelings and the things around them using the Japanese language learned in class and in everyday life. In addition, the aim of this course is to understand Japanese culture and customs through the study of Japanese language.
Style	Course method : In addition to the textbook, other supplementary materials (workbooks, newspaper and Internet articles) will be used as needed to help students consolidate their knowledge and operational skills. Once students have mastered some of the knowledge, there will be time for output, such as practice presentations, in order to promote their overall growth in Japanese language skills. We will strive to teach and provide information that will make students interested in the Japanese language and Japanese culture, but we also hope that students themselves will take an interest in the Japanese language and Japanese culture in their classes.re useful for living in Japan. Grade evaluation method : The results of the first and second semester exams (80%), assignments (10%), and attendance (10%) will determine the overall evaluation. A score of 60 or more is considered a passing grade, and the student will be required to retake the exam if necessary.
Notice	Precautions on the enrollment : Students must take this class (no more than one-third of the required number of class hours missed) in order to complete the 1st year course. Course advice : Students should study up to Lesson 30 of "Minna no Nihongo Shokyu II (2nd Edition) " in advance and understand the contents of the study. There is a lot to learn, so students should prepare and review every day. We also want students to have an interest in the Japanese language and culture. Foundational subjects : Japanese language courses taken in my home country and training to prepare for study abroad. Related subjects : Japanese writing(1st year), Japanese conversation and listening I (1st year), Japanese and Japanese culture (1st year), Japanese language II (2nd year), Japanese conversation and listening II (2nd year), Japanese language III(3rd year) Attendance advice : If students are late for the start of class, they will be counted as tardy for up to 20 minutes.
