	This course is designed to cultivate the ability to communicate in English by learning the vocabulary, syntax, and grammar necessary to achieve a reasonable score on the TOEIC and other external tests. In addition, students will read English articles on current issues to deepen their reading comprehension skills and cultivat a global standard perspective. Video and audio will be used as appropriate.
TÓ 7 (2) ¹ 授業の進め方・方法	(1) Students will become familiar with the format of the TOEIC test through "A COMMUNICATIVE APPROACH TO THE TOEIC L&R TEST". (2) Through "A COMMUNICATIVE APPROACH TO THE TOEIC L&R TEST", students will not only prepare for the test, but also practice speaking the conversations that appear in the TOEIC test questions. (3) Students will practice writing and speaking skills to communicate one's own ideas through exercises in "Sogo Eigo FACTBOOK English Grammar -Core".
This oper Prof We 主意点 in-sc This If th subr	(4) Students will be able to study at the prescribed pace through e-learning based on the above texts. This course is designed to build on English I through English III in this course and to develop actual operational skills in English, and is closely related to English examinations such as the Practical English Proficiency Test and TOEIC. We expect students to actively engage in learning outside of class through e-learning using the Internet. An in-school English vocabulary contest will be held three times a year. This course requires 90 minutes of self-study at home after school for every 90 minutes of class. If the overall grade for the year is less than 60 points, the student will be evaluated on the basis of a resubmitted report and a re-evaluation test. If the score is less than 60 even after reassessment, the credit winot be granted.
